

PLEASE READ THE NOTES BELOW BEFORE COMPLETING THE ATTACHED FORM

Time for making an application to extend the appropriate period

An application under Section 42 of the Planning & Development Act 2000, as amended, to extend the appropriate period as of a particular permission shall be made not earlier than one year before the expiration of the appropriate period sought to be extended.

An application under Section 42 of the Planning & Development Act 2000, as amended, to extend the appropriate period of a particular permission shall be made prior to the expiration of the appropriate period you are seeking to extend.

Content of an application to extend the appropriate period

An Application under Section 42 of the Planning & Development Act 2000, as amended, to extend the appropriate period as regards a particular permission shall contain the information (a) to (m). Accordingly, the application form shall be fully completed.

The application should also be accompanied by the appropriate fee being €62.00.

In making the application you should be guided by the provisions of Section 42 of the Planning and Development Act 2000, as amended, and in particular :

Applications to extend the appropriate period of a permission must comply with the requirements of either Part A or B as set out below, and also the provisions set out in Part C.

Part A :

- (i) the development to which the permission relates commenced before the expiration of the appropriate period sought to be extended
- (ii) substantial works were carried out pursuant to the permission during that period and
- (iii) the development will be completed within a reasonable time.

Or

Part B :

(I) that there were considerations of a commercial, economic or technical nature beyond the control of the applicant, which substantially militated against, either the commencement of development, or the carrying out of substantial works pursuant to the planning permission,

(II) that there have been no significant changes in the development objectives in the development plan, or in regional development objectives in the regional planning guidelines, for the area of the planning authority, since the date of the permission, such that the development would no longer be consistent with the proper planning and sustainable development of the area,

(III) that the development would not be inconsistent with the proper planning and sustainable development of the area, having regard to any guidelines issued by the Minister under section 28, notwithstanding that they were so issued after the date of the grant of permission in relation to which an application is made under this section, and

(IV) where the development has not commenced, that an environmental impact assessment, or an appropriate assessment, or both of those assessments, if required, was or were carried out before the permission was granted.

AND

Part C

- the application is in accordance with such regulations under the Planning and Development Act 2000, as amended, as apply to it,
- any requirements of, or made under the Planning and Development Regulations 2001, as amended are complied with as regards the application, and
- the application is duly made prior to the end of the appropriate period, but not earlier than one year before the expiration of the appropriate period sought to be extended.
