

Information on Bathing Water in Co. Wicklow.

There are six identified bathing waters in Co. Wicklow. These are monitored from late May to mid-September each year. There are six non-identified bathing waters also monitored during a similar period.

Identified bathing waters

- Bray South
- Greystones
- Silverstrand
- Brittas Bay North
- Brittas Bay North
- Clogga

Non-identified bathing waters

- South of Bray Harbour (Bray North)
- Greystones Cove (Nominated for Identification in 2024)
- Kilcoole
- Wicklow Harbour Bathing Area
- Arklow South Beach
- Arklow Cove

For information on the locations, descriptions and water quality for these bathing waters please see www.beaches.ie

For the latest EPA Bathing Water Quality in Ireland Report please see www.epa.ie

The EPA has published advice for the public on the identification of new bathing waters. Please see Public Advice on the Identification of new Bathing Waters | Environmental Protection Agency \(epa.ie\)