Submission

Built heritage should be protected in the Wicklow/Rathnew area.

Tinakilly Avenue is a vital and historical access route for the people of Rathnew and beyond, this Avenue known locally as Halpins Avenue must be retained as a route for vehicular and pedestrians alike.

The Old school formerly known as St Josephs Girls National school and now a Democrat school is a building of local importance for its historical value to the people of Rathnew and must be protected for future generations.
